1810, Oct. 22. Bancker, John, of Belleville, Essex Co., yeoman "being at an advanced age"; will of. Wife, Margaret to have use of $\frac{1}{2}$ of moveable estate and live stock, for life and after her death same to be equally divided between four daughters, Catherine, Margaret Ann, Aletta, and Cornelia. The other $\frac{1}{2}$ thereof to be divided equally between my son, John, and daughters, Susan, Mary and Elizabeth, and children of my late brother, Gerard. House and lot in Cherry St., near the New Slip, New York City, now in occupation of Dr. De Angelis; also a farm (200 acres) in the Belvider Patent, Cherry Valley, N. Y. (purchased of Mrs. Ann Cary) to be sold. Residue from such sales to be divided between son, John, daughters, Susan, Mary and Elizabeth, and children of my late son, Gerard, dec'd ("both of which are to divide share between them"). My present wife, Margaret, to be allowed to continue on the farm at Bellville (37 acres as purchased of William Holmes), during her life, from which she can support herself and her children. After her death, the farm to my four daughters, by said wife, Catherine, Margaret Ann, Aletta and Cornelia. Share of any daughter dying under age and leaving no issue, to survivors. The unequal division of property among children proceeded from consideration that those by my former wives have had a valuable estate left them by their late uncle, Gerard Bancker; whereas the little I have left to my younger children will be scarcely sufficient for their support. Executors—son-in-law, Thomas Richards, and Elias Haines, of New York City, and kinsman, Abraham Bancker of Staten Island. Witnesses—Robert Rutgers, Gerard Rutgers, Margaret S. Rutgers.

1814, Dec. 31. Codicil. If necessary, moveable estate to be sold to pay debts, having a care not to injure the interests of my wife and her children. Witnesses—same. Proved Sept. 22, 1815.

1815, July 21. Hilliard, Joseph*, of Waterford Twsp., Gloucester Co.; will of. Brother, Abraham Hilliard, tract on road from Haddonfield to Longacoming (formerly my father's). If my brother, Abraham, should have a son, I wish him to be called Joseph and he will be heir to said tract at Abraham's death. Abraham also to have my sawmill and its appurtenances; also all personal estate. Rest of the tract on other side of the road to Mary (wife of my said brother, Abraham). Executors—brother, Abraham and his wife, Mary. Witnesses—John Ffirth, William Peirce, Thomas Bates.

1815, Dec. 31. Hillyard, Joseph*, of Gloucester Twsp., and Co.; will of. To Mary C. Hillyard, all land on east side of road to Haddonfield (being tract where my father formerly lived); also remainder of said plantation to said Mary, for life; also the saw mill and profits thereof for life. To Eliza Hillyard and Mary Hillyard (daughters of my brother Abraham and the aforesaid Mary C. Hillyard), the saw mill and its appurtenances after death of their mother; also to them or their survivor, the part of plantation after death of their mother; but if both should die before 21, leaving no issue, said premises to trustees of Methodist Church at the North Branch of Great Timber Creek for benefit of preachers and to keep building in repair. Executrix—my trusty friend, Mary C. Hillyard. Witnesses—John Ffirth, Jeremiah Roberts, John J. Ffirth. Proved Apr. 29, 1816.

1816, Apr. 16. Caveat by James Cheesman. Testimony includes statement of John Ffirth that he wrote the will at request of testator, etc.; also that testator died about six weeks after the writing thereof which was published 31st December, 1815. Statement of John J. Ffirth called John Ffirth his father. Statement of Dr. Bowman Hendry that he saw no symptoms of insanity or delirium on 31st of Dec. He saw him frequently; once under a delirium owing to an opiate being taken. Mary C. Hillyard nursed him during last illness, he being a very helpless man. The doctor had known his sisters, Mrs. Cheesman and Mrs. Lippincott since children and never saw either of them attend him, though they might have been there, as Hannah lived at a short distance and Elizabeth in Philadelphia: the temporary insanity or delirium appeared to be due to religious concern, he being frequently in prayer. (during lifetime of his brother). Testimony of Adam Fowler, a neighbor, quoted testator as saying he would not leave his estate to his brother-in-law, James Cheesman. Testimony of Jacob Williams mentioned children of his sister. Margaret (wife of John Ffirth) also testified. Testimony of Richard Stafford that he went to school with testator as much as 15 years ago but that testator never learned to write or read. Testimony of Benjamin T. Cheesman, Esquire Clement, James Chester, preacher, added that testator was a cripple, that he had attended his class on Nov. 26, 1815 which was after the death of his brother, Abraham. Stated that Mr. Ludlum of Cape May, in a religious conviction, committed suicide. Martha Bennett stated she knew testator when he lived at his mill with his mother who sent word that Joe was crazy. At this time Mary C. Hillyard came and took them both home. Keziah Bates said he seemed affected by the death of his mother. Susannah Matlack stated her husband rented and lived on testator's place, and she knew Mrs. Keziah Bates as she was connected with husband's family and had a sister, Amy Horner. James Perce, brother to Mary C. Hillyard, and Martha Peirce, sister of Mary Hillyard stated that testator's mother died at home of Abraham Hillyard. Thomas Morris stated it was about the last of February, 1816, when testator died.

1816, Oct. 4. Inventory, $123.75; made by Asa Van Sciver, Aaron Giffin. Sworn to by Mary C. Morris, late Hillyard, Executrix, Oct. 7, 1816.

1808, May 10. Marsh, Mordecai, of Bridge Town, Middlesex Co.; will of. Son, Solomon, for life, use and possession of my grist mill, saw mill, mill pond, dam and stream; dwelling house now in occupation of Oliver Martin and where Samuel Martin now resides, including my ship yards; also $1,500, having received part of his portion of my estate (that is $3,500). After his death, all of same to his two sons, Solomon and Mordecai, as tenants in common. Daughter, Frances (wife of Crowell Evans), for life, use and possession of land and dwelling house wherein Lewis Prall now lives [description given]; interest of $6,375 (deducting thereout whatever sums Crowell Evans owes me), annually. After her death, all of land to her son, Mordecai Evans, and residue of money to her children equally. Daughter, Abigail De Antoroches, for life, use and possession of dwelling house and land (lately built on land purchased from James Moore, adjoining land purchased of Richard Marsh, being part of the Old Meeting House lot which I purchased of Richard Hartshorne, and Isaac Vail); also interest of $4,250, annually. After her death, to her son, Lewis DeAntoroches, the house and land and money. If he should die before 21, leaving no issue, house and lot to be sold and proceeds thereof together with principal sum as abovesaid to be divided between all my surviving children. Daughter, Mary (wife of John Brown), for life, dwelling, store house and garden on Rahway River, near my grist mill, and Joseph D. Camp; also interest of $5,000. At her death, said sum to her surviving children. The open space in front of grist mill and the ship yard to remain open and for use of all said devisees as a common privilege. Son, Joseph, tract purchased severally of David Jaques and

Robert Lee (45 acres); also \$2,500, having advanced him a like sum heretofore. Daughter, Susannah Marsh, dwelling house and land adjoining her sister, Frances and Oliver Martin; also interest of \$7,000. If she dies leaving no issue, house and money to be divided between her surviving brothers and sisters, equally. Son, Joseph, house wherein I now dwell; also $\frac{1}{2}$ the home land I hold by will of my father, Joseph Marsh and purchased of John Spinning, adjoining the latter's shop [description given]. Son, Elias, the other $\frac{1}{2}$ of said home land, adjoining land which Jane Lyell purchased of John Spinning and by her will devised to children of Jacob Raddeker and others; also tract of 40 acres purchased of Jonathan Freeman: also \$6,000. A tract purchased of David Jaques, High Sheriff and of John Moore, to be equally divided between two sons, Joseph and Elias; salt meadow purchased of Thomas Skinner in Rahway Meadows; $\frac{1}{2}$ of residue of moveable estate to three sons, Solomon, Joseph and Elias; and interest of other $\frac{1}{2}$ to daughters, Frances, Abigail, Mary and at their deaths to their surviving children and daughter, Susannah. Son, Mordecai, has been absent for a number of years but if he should return before or after my death, to have \$5,000, the bequests to other children being charged therewith, if he returns. If son, Joseph should die leaving no issue, his share to my son, Elias, and if Elias should die before 21, or leaving no issue, his share to son, Joseph. Son, Solomon, also use and possession of my small slip on Log Landing, adjoining Aaron Brokaw's house lot, and at his death to his 2 sons. Executors—cousin, Samuel Marsh, and my two sons, Joseph and Elias. Witnesses—Jeremiah Shotwell, Hugh Laing, Joseph D. Camp.

1814, Mar. —. Codicil. Since making will, grandson Mordecai (son of my son, Solomon), has deceased. Said Solomon (also deceased) has another son "being the 4th son, since named Mordecai", I therefore give to said 4th son, Mordecai, all lands as heretofore devised to Mordecai, now deceased; also \$700. The \$1,500 given to said son, Solomon (now dec'd), I now give to my grandson, Benjamin Marsh (son of said Solomon). To grandson, Joseph (son of Crowell Evens), \$1,000. To each of my granddaughters, Ann Marsh, Mary Marsh, Abigail Evens, Catherine Evens, Mary Brown, Susan Brown, Elizabeth Brown and Mary Jaques, interest of \$200 and principal when 21. If either of them should die before 21, her share to survivors of them. Son, Joseph, by his misconduct having made himself unfit to be an Executor and in lieu of former bequests, I now give him an annuity of \$125 for life. The lands as heretofore devised to him, to be held in trust by Executors for his benefit and that of his family, and at his death to be divided between his lawful issue, if any. To daughter-in-law, Dorcas Marsh, \$125, annually while wife or widow of said son, Joseph. In case of his death without issue, his share to my son, Elias. In case of any dispute, it is to be referred to Richard Hartshorne, Henry Shotwell and Samuel Marsh, whose decision is to be final. Wife, Hester, to have interest of \$2,500 per an agreement between us. Son, Joseph, to have use and occupation of the dwelling house in which I reside for life, reserving therefrom the south westerly room for use of my daughter, Abigail D'Anterroche, and other household privileges. Son, Elias Marsh and son-in-law, John Brown, not to be discharged from their indebtedness to me by reason of their executorship. The $\frac{1}{3}$ of residue (as devised to Solomon), to his surviving children, equally. Interest of share devised to daughter, Susanna Marsh, now Susannah

Jaques, to her for life and at her death to her children. Executors—son, Elias, son-in-law, John Brown, to act with cousin Samuel Marsh as before appointed. Witnesses—Jeremiah Shotwell, Hugh Laing, Joseph Shotwell, Jr.

1814, June 29. Codicil. Daughter, Frances (wife of Crowel Evans), is now dec'd. I give to the several children of said Frances all the land, money and effects as heretofore given to her. Confirms bequest to son, Joseph but deters him from disposing of any lands. Revokes bequest of $200 to each of granddaughters. To daughter-in-law, Letti Marsh (widow of Solomon), interest of $500 during widowhood. To Ann and Mary (daughters of Solomon), each $250. To Mordecai (son of Solomon), $500, after death or marriage of his mother. She to have interest thereof during widowhood. Grandson, Solomon (son of Solomon), $1,600. INDEXES

I. INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS

II. INDEX OF PLACE-NAMES

Index of Names of Persons

NOTE.—The names of testators, intestate persons or wards, printed in heavy type in the preceding text, are not repeated in this Index, as a rule. Where maiden names can be ascertained from the body of the will, they are included.

Where surnames in common use today, or at least with well-known spellings, are usually or curiously used in the text, the current modern spelling is substituted in this Index, to facilitate reference. To a lesser degree the same rule has been applied to Christian names.
